

The Future(s) of Feminist Philosophy. Challenges, Paradoxes and Utopias in a Fragmented World

Workshop of the International Association of Women Philosophers, in cooperation with the Margherita-von-Brentano Centre for Gender Studies, Freie Universität Berlin

Freie Universität Berlin, Seminarzentrum (Silberlaube)
Otto-von-Simson-Str. 26, 14195 Berlin

Friday, June 16, 2017

- 9:30 – 9:45 Welcome and introduction (Susanne Lettow)
- 9:45 – 10:30 Christina Schües (Lüneburg/Lübeck)
Prejudice and Epistemic Vulnerability
- 10:30 – 11:15 Xiao Wei (Beijing)
A Feminist Approach to Philosophy of Psychiatry

Chair: Susanne Lettow
- 11:15 – 11:30 Coffee break
- 11:30 – 12:15 Tuija Pulkkinen (Helsinki)
The Challenge of “Fragmentation” in Feminist Philosophy:
Cavarero and Butler on “Human”

Chair: Annemie Halsema
- 12:15 – 13:30 Lunch
- 13:30 – 14:15 Sigridur Thorgeirsdóttir (Reykjavik)
The Torn Robe of Philosophy: From Mansplaining Lady Philosophy to Remembering her Wisdom
- 14:15 -15:00 Annemie Halsema (Amsterdam)
Objectification. A feminist-phenomenological Account of Sexuality
- 15:00 – 15:45 Stella Villarmeá (Alcalá)
Philosophy of Birth: Obstetric Controversies within Feminism

Chair: Isabella Marcinski
- 15:45 – 16:15 End of the workshop, part I/ Coffee break

Saturday, June 17, 2017

- 9:30 – 10:15 Karen Green (Melbourne)
Catharine Macaulay's Enlightenment Faith and Radical Politics
- 10:15 – 11:00 Eyja M. Brynjarsdóttir (Reykjavik)
Utopias by Gaslight: Doing Philosophy in the Face of Adversity
- 11:00 – 11:15 Coffee break
- 11:15– 12:00 Susanne Lettow (Berlin)
Rethinking Emancipation: Subjectivity, Domination and Time
- Chair: Christina Schües
- 12:00 – 13:00 Lunch/End of the workshop

Please register before June 13, 2017 at sekretariat@mvbz.fu-berlin.de

Margherita-von-Brentano-Zentrum